

With much gratitude and love from Robin & Perpetua to Ms Maria Lau, our wonderful, special and dedicated little wedding planner from Wedding Acts.

Dearest Maria,

Sorry for the much delayed thank you letter. The only reason it took so long in coming is because we wanted to write you a long and special one!

Being a couple that is not your typical run-off-the-mill kind, we believe that the both of us gave you many many headaches as well as much work to do! With Perpetua's constant worries about when things were going to get done, as well as both of our need for perfection in every aspect of the wedding, it most definitely was not an easy job for you! Yet, you put up with it all despite our nonsense, and succeeded in helping relieve us of our fears on the very day itself.

Our wedding was a truly memorable, perfect and wonderful one. We can't thank you enough for helping us make sure that every minute detail that we were looking into flowed through as smoothly as it could possibly have. You made that special day for us one that was truly stress-free. You just made the day extra special.

Thanks for introducing us to Silhouette, so that Perpetua's unusual gown could have been as beautiful and as fitting for her as it turned out to be (especially the outstanding yellow dress that wowed the crowd as much as it did); and Robin to look as charming and suave as he did that day. Thanks also for bringing us to Moomedia, so that Andrew's wonderful PR skills helped to open us up and make us feel at ease so that every emotion was shown in every single shot of our photos as well as our MTV! Thanks also for giving us objective comments on all our quirky and seemingly impossible ideas, especially with all the DIY stuff that was going on and the unoriginal and crazy ideas! Last but not least, thanks for your help with SAFYC, for without you, we believe we could not have got as good a deal as we did. =) (especially with all the nonsense, unmet deadlines and headaches that Chee Yang caused you)

Thank you for being the one to start us off on our lovely and wonderful journey to this beautiful day. Without you, all this would not have been as wonderful...and to the start of a lovely and interesting friendship and collaboration for future couples! winks

Take care, our dear little wedding planner, and our heartfelt thanks goes out to you for every little thought, effort and sweated that you had put into making our wedding such a wonderful, happy and heart felt event.

With love,

Robin & Perpetua

To Our Dearest Maria,

With Love,
Robin & Perpetua

P/S: Your present is still waiting for you! 😊
